ORDER

We have heard this appeal for some time. During the hearing, we noticed that several pages are illegible; there is no proper pagination and some pages are totally blank. This has caused great inconvenience to us. Learned senior counsel for the appellant has tendered apology and states that the paper books will be carefully perused and checked again and if necessary fresh paper books containing legible documents will be filed and for this purpose he seeks three weeks time. He may file the legible copies or replace the paper book after serving copy on the other side.

List the matter for further hearing on 01.09.2017.
