ORDER

We have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

On a perusal of the records, it is noticed that the Appellant cannot claim to be an aggrieved party to the impugned Order. Further, the relief granted in the impugned Order does not survive as the period of three months referred to in the impugned Order is already over.

In view of the above, the Appeal is disposed of. However, the question arises in this matter is left open to the Appellant to raise at the appropriate forum.
